America First, So Help Me God!

Dear Kosti:

. . . Yes, I notice quite a change in you through your paper. After reading it, if I didn't know different, I would feel like fighting the Germans myself. Lots of people commented on it but then that is your opinion and you are entitled to it, at least you are being patriotic, no one could say otherwise . . . . Love, ...

THEY MADE ME SAY, SO HELP ME GOD !

Dear . . . .

Thanks for your letter and the frankness of your language. Of course, I don't have to apologize for the "change" in me or my paper. Is there any? really? Or are you just waking up to something you failed to notice before or I failed to emphasize?

I suppose you have reference to the Werewolves Roam the Earth. Well, don't they? And because the German legend happens to be true that humans become beastly wolves and tear each other to pieces, as well as innocent bystanders, like civilian men, women and children, does that make them less werewolves? And because I pointed out the Nazi werewolves who are now fighting desperately for their lives since the "unconditional surrender" announcement and the Morgenthau threat, as well as Kommissar Henderson's visit, does it change the fact that even our boys must kill and kill and kill, being under the same military oath like the Germans? And what distinguishes the one from the other, when all of them kill innocent bystanders?

Two years ago I received lots of sympathy, and occasional small amounts of money, from an American woman whose German born husband died as a result of the war hysteria persecution recently. I did not like it very well to accept her gifts, since she was poor, but it was a sort of religious devotion with her, to do something for me who was being persecuted by the same gang. It would have done more harm to her heart to refuse her gifts. That went on till she sent me personal clothing and belongings of her late husband. By that time I realized I had to wake the woman up to the fact that I did not agree with her viewpoint that all evil in the world was caused by the Jews. I hold to the view that the Nazis are just as bad and just as beastly. That they simply looted Germany, all Europe, and drove her people to the shambles. The woman blew up. Though American born she worshipped Germany and Germans. To me the truth was higher than Deutschland Ueber Alles, and I let her know.

Most of the leftover clothing I had given away to the Good Will Industries and she was terribly offended that I treated the belongings of her martyred husband in such fashion. Then I sent a check for $50 to return the small sums she had sent me. I did not come to the USA to worship Germany. My religious superior, the only contemporary who was my superior, in ability and knowledge, that I met here on earth, had instructed me to go to Germany to teach in 1911. But I hated the militarism of Germany so badly I refused to obey his instructions and practically lost my standing with him so that I had to go alone ever since, and came to the USA on a general mission from the Home Temple, instead.

Here I was told by the US government to take an oath of allegiance as an obligation of citizenship. I took it. It closes with: So Help Me God! And so help me God, I'll make the government keep that oath, too. Hence THE BROOM.

I have been accused of conspiracy to demoralize the armed forces in this war in cahoots with the Nazis. I was taken in manacles and leg irons to Washington but never tried on that charge. It resulted from the fact that I took my oath without mental reservations and now, SO HELP ME GOD, I'll live up to it or die in the attempt.

Therefore, when I noticed how five and six years ago, Jewish propaganda attempted to embroil the USA into war with Germany, I exposed the Jewish mischief makers.

I am a "foreigner" who is through with the old world. I know them too darn well. The Jews could not pull the wool over my eyes with their old world intrigue for which they have been chased out of every civilized country on earth at some time or other, except the USA. This was construed as "demoralizing". Well, my oath prevails: So Help Me God! I'll defend this country against ALL enemies, foreign AND domestic.

Many Germans took this expose to mean that I sympathized with THEIR CAUSE. And many Jews took it to mean that I HATE Jews on sight. Both are wrong. I love America first and the principle for which this Republic stands.

When Jews were trying to embroil us in war and were spreading lying propaganda I told the truth about it. When Germans construe this that I am on Hitler's side, one of them, or in sympathy with ANY war, on either side, they all finally must awaken to the fact that I am in the Christ service, for Peace on earth, and against all who make this lovely planet a shambles for werewolves to roam.

This is how you noticed a "change" in me, but is there? Love, KOSTI.

Riding Both Horses

A BILL which has appeared quite regularly for a number of years has been introduced in the present session of the State legislature—a measure to abolish "cross filing" in the primaries and limit a candidate to one ticket. It would be a healthful thing for California government if the bill should pass, although the prospects, according to past experience, are not so good.

There are certain local elective offices which should be non-partisan. The divergences between Democratic and Republican policies have no relation, for instance, to the conduct of county offices, municipal offices and judgeships. These offices should be and mostly are filled on a non-partisan basis. But there is a sound reason why state and federal officials should be elected by parties, even though state issues in general have no direct relation to national issues. That is the survival of the two-party system, with the responsibility of the party in power for good government.

It is admittedly absurd, when the election of a United States senator or a representative in congress is involved, for a candidate to run as both a Republican and a Democrat. If he has any principles at all, he must be one or the other. But year after year we have seen candidates running on both tickets—and in some instances polling a majority of both parties. This means that not only the candidate, but the voters, ignore principle; for a congressman cannot be both new deal and anti-new deal, and he cannot support high tarriffs and free trade. To say that congressmen should be above partisanship is to repudiate the two-party system, which has made this country, and to take away all party responsibility.—San Diego Union.

WE NEED AN AMERICA FIRST PARTY

The San Diego Union writer is a good hash-slinger of words, making hash out of the truth and facts, but were he intellectually honest, he would carry out the very thesis he prescribed to its ultimate conclusion and then the San Diego Union would promptly fire him for telling the truth which a commercially controlled Adv. Press cannot stand. It is the function of the non-commercial, independent press to carry out the principles enunciated to their logical conclusions.

The two-party system will work when each party will present a definite program, work for a definite goal and accept responsibility for the failure of its office holders to make good their promises. But the fiction of a two-party system has produced existing political confusion Such terms as new-Deal and anti-new-Deal are weasel words. The new Deal is supposed to represent a program of totalitarianism, socialism, communism, stateism, paternalism as opposed to individualism. But what does the Republican party present?

Landon, Willkie and Dewey, speaking for the Republicans, did give lip-service to individualism but the promises they made for effective administration have been summed up by former Rep. Kleberg, of Texas, as "me too". How, then, can the voter distinguish between a Republican, and a new Dealer? Wherein lies the distinction?

Take the case nearer home! Republican Governor Earl Warren of California opposed at the last election the state proposition 12 which insured freedom of the individual to employment regardless of union or non-union affiliation. If an American citizen in California must first pay tribute to a labor racketeer and submit to his regulatory tyranny before he can exercise his sovereign right to earn his living by useful service, then what is the difference between Joe Stalin and Earl Warren? Stalin IS THE UNION BOSS and Warren serves the union boss. That's the only difference. As long as Warren supports Communistic Labor Rackets he is no different from FDR. So how should a voter follow principle where principle has been sold down the river by opportunist politicians who will sell America into slavery for the spoils of political office?!

WE. THE MOTHERS, MOBILIZE FOR AMERICA. INC.
537 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Co-Worker:

The welfare of our country depends upon the cooperation of effort on the part of true Americans.

From time to time, we shall apprise you of action we are taking, asking your cooperation. We shall appreciate your informing us of action you initiate, and wishing our assistance.

At this time, we are sending a message to all our Congressmen, demanding that they bring home, at once, our boys, from the European theater of war.

We believe that further participation in that war is inimical to the welfare of our country, as well as to the small countries of Europe.

This is the only realistic conclusion to draw from the act of Britain and Russia's complete ignoring of the Atlantic Charter, and Mr. Roosevelt's laughing repudiation of is as a "mere memorandum".

With no achievable aim, and with Russia and Britain selfishly engaged in the old game of power politics, this war means only the utter and wanton destruction of American Youth. This in turn will reduce America, our country, to a second class nation.

Mr. Roosevelt's speech to Congress on the welfare of the Union, wherein he ignores facts, and gives only vague excuses for the loss of American principles, gives us no recourse except to ask our Congressmen to exercise their rightful power. Bring our boys home.

In this representative Republic, public opinion is the ultimate power. The men in Congress are our spokesmen. They need, and, doubtless, desire to hear what we think.

Will you as individuals and as an organization, write your representatives and express your wishes on this subject?

Patriotically yours,
LYRL C. VAN HYNING

Once Is Enough

One attempt to fasten upon the United States the Russian method of holding mass trials is enough. The method couldn't provide justice; it isn't American.

Not only that, but the one attempt we made resulted in a mistrial after months of taking testimony, and all persons accused appear certain to go free of the charges under which the trial was started.

Our one instance of attempting to sovietize our courts brought 30 persons before the bar accused of sedition. Their alleged offenses were committed in many parts of the nation, one having been in San Diego. The different accused persons had committed a widely varying number of offenses, the government charged, and yet they were all herded into court in a body.

The trial, under the circumstances, could not be a hearing conducted to determine the truth or falsity of charges. It developed into a many ringed circus and no one could predict when the final act would be performed. Attorneys were permitted to make a farce of the court.

Perhaps the case would have established an all-time record for court entertainment had the hand of death but permitted. Eventually the presiding judge, Edward C. Eicher, died, leaving the court with no alternative but to throw out everything that had been done on the hearing up to that time.

Now it seems unlikely that the prosecution will have the nerve to undertake another trial involving these accused persons. Attorneys for the government seem to have lost their zeal for this kind of hearing, and the results will be that the accused persons never will have an opportuunity to clear their names nor will those who were guilty, if such were among the accused, be punished.

The difficulty, of course, was that we undertook to import the Russian system without bringing with it the method. Russian courts may not specialize in the administration of justice, as we understand the word, but they certainly are expeditious. They allow little time for the accused or for the judge to die natural deaths before judgment is pronounced.

Speech of

There followed then the audacious assault upon the Supreme Court and a spectacular international policy of nagging and general irritability, while supplying the aggressors with the needed sinews of aggression.

Meanwhile the totalitarian trend here at home went on grimly forward. The Marxist issue had increased in urgency by the campaign of 1940, and to this issue was soon added the vital issue of war, of international alliances, and of commitments of the resources of the United States to the purposes of a war toward which we maintained an attitude of declared legalized neutrality.

It was of first importance in this campaign of 1940 that the people should have opportunity to pass judgment upon matters so vitally concerning their future and their destiny.

The then proponents of war and totalitarianism were still more careful in 1940 to prevent the submission to the people of the important questions raised by their actions. They even dared to violate America's sacred democratic two-term tradition, to keep continuity in their veiled and secret planning. Moreover, they maintained their remarkable sheer mental control over the operations of the opposition party.

Perhaps these planners calculated that the people would accept a third termer in preference to the exponent of a "me, too" campaign.

There appeared, then, Willkie, to lead the Republican Party in "me, too" campaign No. 2. He brought some personal color and a burlesque into this astounding betrayal of the people —a betrayal which cheated them of their right to pass judgment on the control of issues that most seriously concerned the future. Republicans then, for reasons best known to themselves, took domestic Marxism out of politics and also stepped toward war, which we in this body knew well.

Candidate Roosevelt, in that campaign, furnished effective spoken opposition, however, to New Deal plans when he won the election by many solemn promises, none of which have borne fruit.

Such excellent concealment of their Marxist and international programs proved that these mysterious manipulators still did not dare in 1940 to avow their purposes to the American people. Cunning and concealment are never expressions of good faith.

Let us see if this truism only fails to apply in the case of the New Deal. There was a time in that period when an effort was made to dispose of the name New Deal. Let us see what these inner planners have promised through their spokesman. They have promised frugality, democracy, free enterprise, reform, recovery, tolerance, peace, plenty, and "four freedoms". However, they have practiced prodigality, totalitarianism, sabotage of business, corruption, depression, intolerance, war, famine, shortages, and many tyrannies.

This inner Marxist New Deal revolution, in whatever aspect seen, is a revolution promoted in bad faith and secrecy. The truth has not been found in it, and where truth fails all virtue fails. Black magic, indeed, has been practiced to beguile a free people. But the historic crime—that infamy which will cling to it as the years roll into centuries—is that it has deliberately polluted the moral climate of liberty in this, her chosen abode. That was a crime against humanity.

"Hungry men cannot eat liberty," New Dealers intoned in the early days of their power, when they first offered their mess of pottage for the priceless heritage of our people. No; one cannot eat liberty, nor honesty, nor truth. Yet millions of men have sacrificed their lives that those coming after them might enjoy these highest celestial blessings. On the burning sands and in the dark jungles of the South Pacific and of southern Asia and in the sleet and mud of Europe our young men are daring death and torment for the sake of liberty. The Goddess of Liberty still looks out from her post in the harbor. Did these revolutionaries think to tell them that liberty cannot restore their lives once given? When these men return from the torments of their self-sacrifice—those who do—will New Deal cynics dare tell them that bread is worth more than liberty? Shabby revolution! Shabby slogan!

Federal City

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

VANDENBERG'S APOSTASY . . . .

BOOKS TO READ . . . . . .

UPTON CLOSE ON DICTATORSHIP . . . . .

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15,— In perhaps no capital on earth (except possibly Moscow) are the "Internationalists" so powerful and so constantly on the alert as in Washington City.

They bring constant pressure on almost every Representative and Senator, to convert him or her to their ideology.

The first so-called "Republican" senator to fall for their siren song is Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, who on Wednesday last made a speech in the Senate, which has received an acolade from every Communist, New Dealer, Internationalist and congenital "left-winger" hereabouts.

Of course, some of Vanderberg's remarks are beyond dispute. All good Americans prefer honorable peace to destructive war; and they would welcome some sort of organization (not now visible on the world's horizon) which would be a preventive of war and not a gateway to it.

Whether Vandenberg could pass an examination on the nature of our American government is not known; but his recent speech raises the issue.

Do not Vandenberg and his new "buddies" the "Internationalists", know that "SOVEREIGNITY" is the main characteristic of any government? — that a government without sovereignity is no government at all, but only a slave "state" ?

Judge Cooley, perhaps our greatest authority on Constitutional Law, defined sovereignty as "the supreme, absolute, uncontrollable power by which any state is governed." . . . "It is essential that it should be exclusive of any other human superior authority".

Lincoln defined it as "a political community without a political superior".

The power to make war is another essential to "sovereignty". A state unable to defend itself against attack would be an easy prey to any enemy.

Mr. Vandenberg has proposed that the U. S. join Britain and Russia in a "treaty" PERMANENTLY DISARMING GERMANY and OURSELVES MAINTAINING A GREAT PERMANENT ARMY, which would be used to war on Germany at any moment she started to arm.

Most Americans might agree that Germany should be occupied until a stable, free, REPUBLICAN or LIMITED MONARCHICAL form of government should be established. But to keep the Germans permanently enslaved is another matter.

One great trouble with any alliance between the Big Three is the fact that their forms of government are so varied. The Russian government is a slave state, where three of the so-called "Four Freedoms" do not exist. They have only a limited "freedom from want", — about like that of the black slaves.

If America and England, in 1919, had forced Germany to establish a good republic, with demagoguery absent, the president selected by the Reichstag and limited to one term of four years, with a senate somewhat like ours (its members elected by State legislatures), with no article 58 in its constitution (which allowed the legislature to abdicate in favor of a dictator), it is likely there would have been no second world war.

Wilson's Secretary of State, Robert Lansing, wrote in his great book, "The Peace Negotiations", that the Treaty of Versailles was very unjust and thoroughly bad, that as surely as a new generation should arise in Germany its people would make war to rid themselves of its shackles. (See pages 273-274 of Lansing's book). I shall quote from this book at length later.

This speech by the apostate Vandenberg, if exploited fully by Goebels in Germany, may have the effect of prolonging the war and costing hundreds of thousands of American casualties.

In ineptness it ranks with Morgenthau's threat to destroy Germany as an industrial nation and enslave its people.

Drew Pearson broadcast that Vandenberg had consulted with some of the interventionist Republicans and that a Dewey man (Bell) had helped him write the speech.

But the Senator does not speak for the Republican party or old-line Democrats.

The New York Daily News feared that it indicated a need for a new party, if the old Republican party was to be swallowed by the Internationalists.

There is an absolute necessity in a republic for a strong opposition party, if dictatorship is to be avoided.

I believe Vandenberg will prove a "flash in the pan", and will be retired from office when he comes up for re-election.

UPTON CLOSE ON DICTATORSHIP

Upton Close, the ablest commentator of the airwaves, said yesterday via Mutual that there are essentially but two forms of government.

One form, the totalitarian kind, SUPPRESSES CRITICISM; the other form, whether republican or a limited monarchy, welcomes criticism and encourages opposition.

It is the "old-American" way. While fighting tyranny abroad, we must not let it triumph here.

Walter Lipschitz stated Sunday that Attorney-General Biddle had cancelled a speech he was to make in Columbus, O., because Upton Close is to be on the platform.

Incidentally, Lipschitz admitted that he "made a technical error" (lying, I called it) on January 14th when he asserted that Ernest Elmhurst, the writer who was unjustly indicted, had access to the home of War Mobilizer Jimmy Byrnes.

Yesterday Walt admitted his error. Byrnes is too big a man to lie about.

* * * *

HERE ARE SOME BOOKS I wish to suggest to my readers, which are "eye-openers" to those who want to understand true Americanism.

(1) "The Peace Negotiations" by Robert Lansing, who was Wilson's Secretary of State. You will recall that Wm. J. Bryan resigned when he saw that Wilson was leading us into war. Lansing succeeded him.

(2) "Across the Frontiers", by Sir Phillips Gibbs, one of the two greatest writers in England. A sensational story of the Germany of 1920 to 1939.

(3) "Pan-Germanism", by Prof. Roland G. Usher of the Washington University, (1913, St. Louis.

(4) "Encyclopedia Britannica", Vol. E, European War, page 870.

(5) President Wilson's Speech in St. Louis, Sept. 5, 1919, after he came back from the Versailles "Peace" (?) conference disillusioned, calling World War I a "commercial and industrial war". (See "Congressional Record" of Sept. 8, 1919, in your city library).

Dear readers,—please write me about your experiences in running down this bibliography. (Write, care of this paper).

City Salestax Again

San Diego City Manager Fred Rhodes is asking the council to enact an ½% city salestax which would be collected from merchants in addition to the 2½% salestax of the state and passed on to consumers.

While the world is slaughtering its youth in a futile attempt at bringing harmony and peace by wholesale hell, this stupidity is evident in the approach which Rhodes takes to our economic tangles. We are trying to uphold individual initiative in enterprise in America by punishing it with a sales tax for the benefit of the British inherited superstition that holding land gives the holder title to confiscate the labors and products of those who use "his" land.

Government services increase land values and only land holders should pay, and none else.

Rhodes proposes that the land holders receive something for nothing and that the burden be shifted to industry and the ultimate consumers for the profit of him who holds a title of nobility, of privilege, because he holds land, which he never made and whose values is determined by the activities of the people as a whole, as it reflects on that particular location.

One cannot have freedom and initiative of the individual when one protects a privileged class who can cash in on public activity by holding title to land for which the taxes can be shifted to the tenants and then to the ultimate consumers who must work to pay the salestax and uphold a government which gives the land lord an unearned privilege.

Taxes on industry destroy industry and work into the hands of Communists.

The Mexican Water Treaty

Because Texas is Democratic, politically, but inhuman and reactionary as a slave owning and peonage exploiting state which voted for the Newdeal, it is to be rewarded with the plum of water that partly belongs to Mexico in exchange for robbing California and Arizona of its natural water resources to be given to Mexico. The Texas delegation in the Senate is hard boiled enough to rob the Texas people of their American citizenship by keeping the peons voteless thru poll taxes and other expediently discriminatory shenanigans. Its profession of democracy is as hypocritic and un-American as its assumption of power to rob California and Arizona for the profit of Texas land exploiters.

Treaties are for the purpose of establishing equitable relationships between nations, not to be used to rob and gag forever, by attempting to remove the victim from his chance for a day in court. California cannot sue in the U. S. courts against a valid treaty. But, evidently, if this fake treaty is enacted, California will have to start a suit on the constitutionality of such illegal treaty.

Where the President and the Congress overreach themselves the Supreme Court has power of adjudicating constitutionality of their acts. If the Supreme Court has power to rule unconstitutional an act passed by both houses and approved by the President, it certainly has power to rule on an act passed only by the senate and signed by the President.

The City Dog Ordinance

If you love animals you will not coop them up in a city room or torture them on the leash or expose them to the hazards of city traffic and accidents. Animals belong in the big, wide open spaces not in cities.

When you notice all the dogs offal on lawns, sidewalks, and flower beds; when the damned dog, damned by you to make a nuisance of itself, barks while the neighbors wants to sleep, you'll wake up to the fact that dogs and roosters are out of place in the city.

THEY ALL SUCCUMB IN THE END

David Lloyd George, in his 82nd year, becomes an earl of England—Earl Lloyd George of Dwyfor.

This is a strange ending for the young Welsh nationalist who gained his first local notice by his opposition to the compulsory tithes of the established church, and by suing succesfully to permit nonconformists burial in the ward of the church they supported but did not attend.

REPORT REDS SPECIFY CIO LABOR IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,— Soviet Russia, emerging openly as an ally of Sidney Hillman in his drive for world labor control, is demanding exclusive use of CIO labor in post-war contracts to be allotted American industry, it was reported on high authority.

One of the largest shipbuilding companies in the United States, it was stated, was recently approached by Russia and offered a huge contract for post-war construction of vessels with the stipulation that the Congress of Industrial organizations must control employes on the job.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

You are too good. A way last summer I sent you one dollar toward a year's subscription, promising to send you the rest at an early date. Well, with the best intentions I found I could not send the rest of the money. Still that mealy little paper has been coming to me every week with its high and steadfast adherence to its purpose. Neither strayed by opinion nor intimidated by threats. It is a great privilege to be in such company for a few paltry shekels. Yet it was through no conscious carelessness that I defaulted. Like you, I am trying in a less efficient way to spread the gospel of peace and freedom, and the ends fail to meet.

I am enclosing an additional dollar hoping you will carry on until I can again get caught up.

A New Year's hope, in the gloom ahead, that somehow some way the light will enter and we shall be turned again toward its shining promises.— Mrs. C. H.

Crucifixion of Jesus and Resurrection

By an Eye-Witness

LETTER OF THE ESSENE ELDER

(From one of the Essene Elders in Jerusalem to one of the Elder Essene in Alexandria.)

Editor's Note: A discovered MSS. of the ancient Alexandria Library, translated into English.

And the time had come that Jesus should be admitted into the first degree of our secret order. And in the valley our order had a brotherhood, situated not far from the mountain, where the castle Masseda is erected; and the elder of our brotherhood met them there, and listened to their conversation. He taught that wisdom and virtue were strengthened by fraternity, whereupon Jesus asked to be allowed to take measures for admittance into the order, in enthusiastic transport. The example set by him was followed by John, and the elder offered up a prayer that made Jesus a devotee of God.

According to the rules of the order, the elder now said: "You shall be my brethren as soon as you, by the next new moon, see the glare of fire on the mountain, where the temple is built, where you then will appear. He that is initiated into the order has at the same time devoted his life to serve others. Tell your father Joseph that the time has now come for him to fulfill the vow he made at 'mount Cassius.' "

The Essene then departed. But when the child got home, Joseph was remembered of his vow and his duties to our brethren. Joseph then made known to Jesus that he was not his father. They kept secret the admission of Jesus into the brotherhood, for fear of the Gaulanites. By the agreement, in the evening, they saw the signal of fire ascend from the mountain, when they immediately set out for the place, where they were met by the white-robed messengers sent by the brotherhood.

Jesus was initiated according to the rules, as follows: They were both shown the way to enter the assemblage, where the brethren were seated in four separate groups, according to the four degrees. Over the scene the crescent shed its lurid glare. The two were then placed before them, and made the vow, the brethren in their white robes placing the right hand on their breasts, and the left one hanging down by their sides; because none but the pure of heart shall see the holy and sacred. And they vowed indifference to the treasures of this world, wordly power or name, and vowed obedience and secrecy through the brotherly kiss. And, as is our custom, after making the vow these two were conducted into the lonely cavern there for three days and nights for self-trial. In the evening of the third day they were brought back to the assembled brothers to answer the questions put to them, and then pray. Having received the brotherly kiss, they were dressed in the white robes, denoting the sacred purity, and a trowel put in their hands, denoting the task of our brotherhood. Having sung the hymns and partaken of the feast of love by themselves, according to the custom of the order, none of the brethren participating, they were dismissed, and instructed about the trials they were to go through, living alone separate from society for a year, somewhere not far from the elder of the order, to receive instructions from him fitting them for the higher degree of our order.

And both of them grew rapidly in divine knowledge. Jesus had frank, hearty disposition, but John shrouded himself in stern seriousness, and sought solitude. The year having passed, they were again by new moon admitted into the order as real members, and initiated into the higher science. Having given a full account of their doings in the year, and acted in obedience to all the rules, and performed the ceremonies of praying, singing, and partaking of the feast of love, and conducted to the secret chamber of worship, they were instructed to search in the scriptures.

CHRISTMAS EVE, 1944

E'en tho my Love lies asleep in the snow,
He shall be with me wherever I go.

E'en tho he fight midst the snow and the sleet
My soul walks beside him on swift willing feet.

E'en tho he perish and sleep 'neath the snow
I shall be with him when the Next Life we know!

Letters from James Edward Smythe

I have been reiving letters from my friends in the East, warning me not to publish Smythe's missiles, because they were lies, and I should know enough not to trust Smythe.

Well, I don't trust Smythe, and I know his peculiar mentality. But Smythe is irrepressible. You can slap him down and he has no sense, he comes up again and acts as if you were his best bosom friend.

I was in jail with Smythe for over 2 months. I certainly had every opportunity to become acquainted with his erratic mind. He is a typical Bowery Irish-Tammany political heeler. And I enjoy him. He called me all sorts of names, but I am not thin skinned. I drew jail and survived, was tossed in the bay and swam out when the longshoremen threw me in. I had bullets whistle by and miss me, so what's a few names?

One good example to expose the Jews who engineered the Moscow mass sedition smear against fearless Americans and some Germans, is to let Smythe perform. One letter here and another there. By and by the readers get the complete picture. If that crazy coot Smythe is a co-conspirator with Hitler, then FDR, Rosenman and Rogge are ripe for the bug-house.

So you will get more occasional letters from Smythe. He is good. If Hitler had no better sense than to conspire with Smythe, or Rogge no better sense than to imagine the American public were so devoid of humor to swallow the myth that a Smythe and a Hitler conspired together to overthrow the U. S. A. and make Smythe a Gauleiter....

So you see, poor Judge Eicher really was the goat, poor fellow, he was the fall guy.... he even fell for Smythe, let Smythe tell you about it, for the Judge reduced his bail and they had an understanding among themelves, it was evident at the trial.

And let me tell you, Smythe is human, he explains American politics. He is the type. People who will vote 4 times for FDR have no sense, are irresponsible and irrepressible.

I had been several weeks in the D. C. Jail when Smythe arrived. Because Viereck and Townsend had been nice to me in providing stamps, stationery and a package of cigarets, each, till I learned the ropes and discovered how to use cigarets as "money" to barter for other necessities, I shared with Smythe and he certainly knew no limit when it came to take advantage. Of course, he soon showed his colors, as an irresponsible scoundrel and applied every possible epithet to me, and what of it?

The essence of Christiantiy is to treat even your enemies as human beings, and so occasionally I still helped Smythe out, for we are victims in the same persecution, bear in mind. And the rogue was human enough to reciprocate by slipping me some vegetarian titbits at meal times. One must have a sense of humor to take in the whole situation. In a pinch I was never so petty as not to let him have "two bits" here and there and had to chuckle when he took it after first saying the dirtiest things about me to fellow prisoners.

Says, Eicher and Rogge Human

My Dear de Aryan:

Believing that you are interested in TRUTH and JUSTICE I again take the liberty of writing you setting forth some important points that will be, and should be recorded for history, I write this not in anger but rather as one who wants to see the sunlight of American public opinion shine on these few important points.

First, I want to say this to you, and for the public record. I have met thousands of big men in public life, business, religious and political. I could count on my one hand the cream of the crop, one of these few big men I have met and who I became greatly attached to was the late Chief Justice, Edward C. Eicher. He was a learned Judge, a great American and a gentleman.

He was not a stooge as is generally believed for anybody, he went to the White House and pleaded with President Roosevelt to stop this trial but Felix Frankfurter and Sammy Rosenman demanded that it continue, for they had an INSANE belief that the jury would convict certain of these defendants who would be singled out when the time came for the prosecution to present the case to the jury. I knew who these ones would be, these defendants (less than ten may be brought to trial again) but Justice Eicher did not believe any of the defendants had conspired with Hitler as charged in the indictments . . . But here is what he was fully convinced of (and Justice Eicher and myself discussed this at great length) that there was a rising HATRED of the JEWS in America, and it was for that very reason he wanted to stop the trial . . . . Justice Eicher and myself discussed all the issues involved relative to the JEWS and he held his own opinions on this MOST VITAL subject to show you what a fair man he was I will cite for the record a few little incidents.

One week before he died he had sent the U. S. Marshal to inform me that he wanted to see me in his chambers the next morning at ten o'clock. I was a few minutes late but I met the Judge coming in, he likewise was a few minutes late. He and I went into his chambers, there were people waiting to see him, but he informed his secretary that he would see no one as he wanted to spend his morning talking with me. I was with him two hours, or ten minutes before he went on the bench. At this conference the talk got around as usual to the different defendants, what I knew about them? what their business was? what did they publish? and things in general. He always called every defendant as Mister this, and Mister that. He got around to talking about Wilhelm Kunze (former head of the German-American Bund). He said "Smythe, Mr. Kunze is a gentleman, he has conducted himself as a gentleman all during this trial, he strikes me as a fine man". I said, "Yes Chief" (I always called Judge Eicher Chief) "he (Kuntze) got a raw deal, he shouuld never have been convicted in that other case". His answer was "I am going into that very carefully".

Here was the HUMAN SIDE of Chief Justice Eicher . . . . . OH, I could tell you many other things about him if you will allow me, and you will publish them in the interests of fair play, but let me say a few words about the Special Prosecutor O. John Rogge, to show you he likewise was human after all.

Just about the end of last Smmer, one of those Indian Summer days, I was talking to Mr. Rogge in the courtroom during a recess. He said to me "Smythe I never wanted this case, and I am sorry that I am in it, where I belong is down at the seaside with my wife, enjoying life".

Mr. Rogge has been called every name under the sun by the defendants in the sedition case, but he had a job to do, he had a debt (a political debt) to pay the NEW (JEW) Deal. He believed in his cause, he believed he had a case, like any prosecutor.

I was always up on my feet fighting my enemies every inch of the way, and yet these defendants that I was battling for hated me. But I want to say this now to you, some of these very defendants made a damned good living out of this case while it was going on (a collection racket).

One morning I was broke and hungry, did not have even coffee that morning as I had wired my wife the night before for funds and they had not arrived, however I asked one of my fellow defendants, for twenty-five cents so that I could eat and I would return it about noontime. This man had always plenty of money, he was collecting and securing money through various means, but he turned me down, told me he didn't have any. So this is the tripe that I was charged with conspiring with. WHAT A LAUGH!

I didn't know most of them and from what I have seen of them I would not want to be connected with them, directly or indirectly.

When Mr. Garner's body was shipped home to his beloved wife, NAKED, I was the only one that went to Congress and demanded an investigation. I hold the records to prove that, these Christian Patriots, while their fellow co-defendants went hungry in Washington, D. C., some of them were collecting many thousands of dollars. This information alone should EXPOSE this SEDITION CASE as a PHONY, THAT THESE PEOPLE WERE NEVER ASSOCIATED WITH EACH OTHER.

Most Cordially Yours,
EDWARD JAMES SMYTHE.

Attorney Powers Beaten By Jews

CHICAGO,— Attorney William J. Powers, whose excellent efforts in behalf of his client, Mr. Pelley, in the Washington "sedition" trial, have made him a target for Jewish hatred, was beaten up during the holidays by five Jews and spent two days in a Chicago hospital and still had not fully recovered 1-3-45 when I talked with him. The case received no publicity. Never has the bloody Red hand of Jewry been brandished more brazenly. .—Elizabeth Dilling, in Patriotic Research Bureau Bulletin, 8 So. Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois.

AMERICA IN DANGER !

By Charles Bartlett Hudson, 4542 Grant St., Omaha 3, Nebr.

Winchell, 1-7-45, claims Justice Dept., to try 10 leaders of the 26 "alleged seditionists" soon; other 16 later. Since I am the only one of the 26 of whom Drew Pearson declared FDR ordered Biddle to get tough with (back in '42), we wonder if we will be forced to go thru the ordeal again soon. You will find documentation herein proving who is demanding this new trial. Also, who would like to see it dropped. And what the defense attorneys, some of whom have been on the case since 1942, and had sat in on almost 8 months of actual trial, think of the prosecution's case.

Illustrating almost impossibility of getting part-time work in Washington—hence necessity of relying on prayers and purses of friends—some of you may have heard Winchell gloat over Drew Pearson's broadcast which resulted in firing of one defendant from a waiter's job in a ritzy hotel where prominent Newdealers eat. Defendant had sued Pearson: Judge Pine had the case thrown out of court. Other defendants also lost their jobs..

Showing to what extremes the powers behind the prosecution will go to starve these defendants, and how you must read the Jewish press as well as the Newdeal press in order to get even a bare outline of the real picture, note carefully news excerpts below:

10-27-44, THE CHICAGO SUN:

Joseph E. McWilliams, soapbox exponent of Nazi anti-Semitism, has found a job with a Chicago war plant, The Chicago Sun learned yesterday. (McWilliams' picture here) McWilliams, who is on trial in Washington with 28 other defendants on charge of sedition, now is employed as an engineer by the Western Shade Cloth Co., Jefferson St. and Cermack rd. The company is working on war orders. William H. Regnery, president of the company, said yesterday that he hired McWilliams because of his ability and not because of his political affiliations. "I have a complete record on McWilliams and know more about him than The Sun does," Regnery stated. "If I want to hire him, it's none of your business." Regnery was a charter member of the disbanded America First Committee in this area and is a member of the isolationist, anti-Roosevelt Citizens U. S. A. Committee and a contributor to the anti-Newdeal American Democratic National Committee. McWilliams could not be reached to explain his absence from the Washington trial.

11-30-44, THE CHICAGO SUN

William H. Regnery, president of the Western Shade Cloth Co., yesterday denied Joe McWilliams' statement that his job "was completed" by reporting that McWilliams had been fired because of his record..... "Unfortunately there has been a general impression that the Western Shade Cloth Co., tolerated such individuals as McWilliams. On the contrary to me such race-baiting demagogues and provokers of religious antagonism are destructive to American citizenship. I repudiate McWilliams and everthing that he stands for in American life." (quote attributed to Mr. Regnery—see below).

12-1-44, THE JEWISH EXAMINER of Brooklyn, N.Y.

JOE McWILLIAMS GETS THE SACK ONCE MORE—Company Fires Him After Public Protests.

CHICAGO (JPS)— Joe McWilliams, professional Jew-baiter and alleged seditionist, has been fired from his job as engineer with the Western Shade Cloth Company here. William Regnery, president of the company, chairman of the board of Chicago's Central National Bank and charter member of the America First Committee, has been writing letters of apology to depositors who closed their accounts in the bank because he hired McWilliams. Previously when asked if he were aware of McWilliams record, Mr. Regnery said he hired him for his ability and not for his political convictions. This is the second job McWilliams lost in two years. J. L. Fishbein, editor and publisher of the Chicago Sentinel, English-Jewish weekly, warned in an editorial, a fortnight ago that the hiring of McWilliams might lead to closing of accounts at the bank.

Mr. St. George, McWilliams' attorney, who had arranged for said job, tells me that Mr. Regnery had a heart attack; that he never gave the 11-30-44 interviews at all; but that the run on the bank in 2 days was over $6,000,000., and the bank's officers were so scared they would do anything, and one of them released the story to The Chicago Sun. Mr. St. George writes that businessmen refused to take checks drawn on the bank. Note it took only 2 weeks for Organized Jewry to stage a run on a bank to oust one of the defendants—not from the bank, but from a plant on war orders—& McWilliams had been hired to speed up war production. Observe Chicago papers kept mum about run on bank, and The Chicago Sun lied about the affair. Same Organized Jewry that demands and gets Federal Govt. pressure on industry, forcing hiring of Jews and Negroes despite employer's desires and/or needs, resorts to "undercover" measures to persecute Americans.

Mr. St. George also reports that Mr. Powers, attorney for Pelley, was set upon by 5 thugs and laid out. He heard one of them say, "there goes one of those sedition lawyers", and then jumped him. During the trial of the "seditionists" some thugs tried to push Powers in front of a subway express. And, a bullet struck windshield of car in which St. George and Mr. Little, another of the defense attorneys, were riding in Washington D. C.. Word was passed around that the defense attorneys would be sorry for having defended us. You'll recall that Judge Eicher found defense attorneys in contempt of his court 8 times, 1 with a jail sentence to be determined at end of trial, and 7 fines totalling $1,150; all a part of the intimidation of defense attorneys, 19 of the 22 serving without compensation!

Defense counsel Koehne's presentation of facts of persecution of some defendants who were trying to work part-time in order to exist, was so impressive that even Eicher asked the Justice Dept., to investigate. Prosecutor Rogge reported that the Govt. insisted is was not FBI agents who were calling on employers forcing them to fire defendants, and the Govt. welcomed assistance to run such false agents down. When we saw the smart-aleck type of young agents as Govt witnesses who insulted defense attorneys and displayed their ignorance of Americanism while showing their prejudice against defendants before the jury and admitted illegal acts (such as seizures of much of Govt's exhibits), I cannot put much stock in Rogge's protestations. Probably such Gestapo-minded agents are the result of hiring and training by Jew Harold Nathan who for some years was buiding the FBI agency force. However, such agents may have been spies hired by the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith which poses as a "welfare" organization—most powerful in Jewry. Some of the Govt witnesses, under cross-examination by defense attorneys, proved to be B'nai B'rith spies. Three of them posed as German members of the Los Angeles German-American Bund, with result that tho it had been given a clean-slate by the FBI, that little group of about 50 members found it could not hold its members—they were constantly losing their jobs. Even 2 boys who had joined the Navy before Pearl Harbor had their uniforms stripped off as a result of such spy activities.

Also reported that word was passed around on Capitol Hill that it would be political suicide for a Congressman to be seen at the trial. As far as I know, Senator Wm. Langer was the only one who came down to see the "greatest trial in American history". However, wife of another Republican Congressman sat in for a few hours. Sen. Langer did his bit—made 2 speeches in the Senate (most readers of this AID! have already received a copy of it—his 2nd speech was even better). Sen. Wheeler put in a good word; and after Eicher's death, Representative Fish and Hoffman expressed their disgust with the unAmerican nature of the trial.. This enabled Jew Sabath to get a smear into the Congressional Record, not only about Fish and Hoffman, but about the defense attorneys; Sabath accusing them and the defendants of causing Judge Eicher's death!

Such intimidation was not extended only to defendants, their counsel, and Congressmen. Wives of defendants were followed, and insulted. Jews in and out of courtroom cried that the defendants should all be taken out and shot. Trial a waste of time, etc. Poor old Garner, who thru an old friend had been placed in a private home, was ousted because man of house feared of losing his job. Col. Sanctuary had a similar experience. Mr. Garner, a sweet little old man, a fine Christian American if there ever yas one, was feeling as chipper as anyone half his age the afternoon of his death as my wife had gone shopping with him. Next eve we were to meet him at a church supper. When he did not show up, we got a terrible shock when his hardboiled landlady of the shabby roominghouse to which he had moved, told us he was in the morgue. Altho he had had 2 suits of clothes, his naked body was shipped to his widow in Wichita, Kas., forcing her to buy a suit to bury him in. It took many months before court-appointed attorney Marvin Bischoff was able to ship Garner's personal effects to his widow. Man's inhumanity to man!

Mr. Roosevelt, in a press conference statement, laughingly buried the Atlantic Charter.

The agreement for which tens of thousands of men have died goes into the grey fogs of history as just some memoranda scribbled for use of press and radio.

Mr. Churchill preached a sermon at the grave of the Atlantic Charter.

Mr. Roosevelt buried it. —Herald Express, Los Angeles.

"DIVINE" SERVICES HALTED TO SHOOT DOWN 3 JAP PLANES

SAN DIEGO,—The halting of "divine" services aboard a motor torpedoboat tender long enough to shoot down three Japanese planes was related by Lieutenant John C. Ahman of Saugus, Mass.

Japanese Zeke fighter planes appeared overhead just as a Catholic priest was distributing communion last November 26, the officer said. General quarters sounded and a crew of anti-aircraft gunners trained by Lieutenant Ahman scurried to battle stations. The three planes were shot down in quick order and "divine" services were resumed.

Dear Fellow Fighter:

There is such a thing as a fighting pacifist, and we are examples, without violence, of course. I have been making myself a reputation in this state as an old "battleaxe", but if ever a place and a people needed arousing, it is here. Note the hill-billy stationery. And it is appropriate. New ideas just floor them, and it is fight all the way. But I am still in the ring.

You pictured my reactions to Roosevelt's hypocrisy exactly. It made my blod boil! And his latest "chat" did no less. Surely he is the devil incarnate. How can he smirk after all the suffering he is causing?

Getting this plantation in working order after having share croppers for 30 years is a man-sized job, and since we have no men I have donned the pants. I am really not gathering any moss!

Good luck and keep plugging,—KAY

Hoffman Hits Dog's Air Ride

LAUGHTER and APPLAUSE GREET CONGRESSMAN'S REMARKS

WASHINGTON,— Speaker Rayburn had to bang his gavel to end laughing and applause from House galleries following remarks by Representative Hoffman (Republican), Michigan, about the airplane trip of Colonel Elliot Roosevelt's dog.

Hoffman also suggested that Fala, the President's dog, might become involved in a marital triangle.

He referred to one newspaper story which quoted the President's wife as saying Fala and another canine had been on a "honeymoon" and to a second that Colonel Roosevelt's dog had been flown by Army transport to the West Coast with a top priority rating.

Perhaps Elliot's dog may become "another angle in a triangle" for Fala, Hoffman told the House.

After reading a letter from an unidentified service man overseas complaining about long duty abroad, Hoffman brought up the subject of the Roosevelt dogs.

"I wonder what he would think if he knew that three men who might have been his buddies were put off a plane because Colonel Roosevelt's dog was aboard", Hoffman said.

U. S. CHARGES DIVISION OF WORLD'S MARKETS

WASHINGTON, — The General Electric Company and its international subsidiary were charged in a Federal suit with conspiring with firms in six other countries to divide the world's electric equipment markets.

Patent Plot Charged

The Justice Department accused General Electric and the subsidiary, International General Electric, of conspiring with firms in Germany, France, Britain, Japan, Belgium and Italy in the exchange of patents and of dividing the world into marketing areas with the aim of eliminating competition.

The Government asked that General Electric's contracts with foreign firms be declared illegal, that the company make patents involved in the agreements generally available on a royalty-free basis, and that the company be required to divest itself of any investments in the foreign firms.

Looking Ahead

Safety Factor

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

CONFUCIUS, two dozen centuries ago said, "When the officials of a nation are virtuous, the people follow their example," and he was right. This ancient oriental was often right. His philosophy has influenced more people and done it longer than any other code. Due undoubtedly to the wisdom of Confucius, China is the only ancient country left today with an ancient civilization. Chinese who read still cherish his sage writings.

Here in America most of our officials have been "virtuous." They get a lot of criticism but not one high-handed tyrant has ever ruled in the United States and only an occasional official turns out to be a scalawag. The reason is a law of nature: Just as flowing water purifies itself, so do recurring elections improve administration. Representatives are not long representatives after they cease rightly to represent.

We Learn by Doing REPRESENTATIVE government is an orderly plan by which free people take care of their mutual affairs. Intelligent citizens, the only kind who can appreciate liberty, are capable of handling their own business and thus protecting their own interests. By paying attention to governmental matters, understanding their own needs and the needs of their neighbors, they are able to select good representatives and instruct them wisely.

By looking out for themselves, people grow and improve their abilities in self government. Individuals never develop in any way by having things done for them—neither do races. Youngsters who do not take exercise don't grow strong. Families that stay on relief long enough can't live without it. States that cease to rule themselves forget how. Democratic nations advance by managing themselves; peoples bossed by dictators slip backward.

Work is Helpful IDLENESS, not work, weakens people. It was in righteousness and in kindness that the Creator of this universe made thinking and working necessary to satisfactory living. It might have seemed like bad news to Adam when God said, "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread." Nevertheless it was a kindness. To whatever extent Americans forget that theirs is a government by the people, to that extent the nation is degraded.

Covetous conspirators, itching to see the United States made over into some sort of socialistic set-up, are the natural enemies of representative government. These are the people who fight Congress on all occasions, with or without cause. Well-meaning persons get vexed sometimes too, and lash out at Congress, but it classifies them with a bad crowd. No military defeat could bring more certain calamity to this country than a cowed Congress.

Congress stands close to the people, between the self-governing citizenship and tyranny. Judicial and executive departments seldom hear the majority's authoritative voice except through Congress. The rare liberty and prosperity of this nation is protected by three things: (1) the Constitution, (2) balance of authority among governmental departments and (3) lawmakers who speak for the people. No two are enough.
